MOVIES HEAT

• Michael Mann turns up the Heat with this rerelease of his acclaimed 1995 heist flick, a remaster that hits Blu-ray with never-before-seen footage, deleted scenes, and a panel discussion featuring stars Al Pacino and Robert De Niro. (R)

BOOKS THE LEAVERS, by Lisa Ko

• After Deming's Chinese mother leaves for work in the Bronx one morning and never returns, the 11-year-old is adopted by a white couple who rename him Daniel. Ko's debut follows Daniel through adulthood—and what really happened to his mother.

TV EMPIRE

• Fox's musical series is wrapping up its thoroughly entertaining third season with plenty of drama (will Cookie and Lucious get back together?) and a cavalcade of great guest stars (Nia Long! Eva Longoria! Demi Moore!). (Wednesdays, 9 p.m., Fox)

MUSIC THIS OLD DOG, Mac DeMarco

• The slacker-rock king's third album is his most personal yet, expanding on his tender 2015 mini-LP Another One. And from lilting acoustic ditties to spaced-out jams, This Old Dog is also a sonically fascinating project for DeMarco.

MUSIC POLLINATOR, Blondie

• The new-wave icons sound as vital as ever on their 11th LP, which includes writing credits from tastemakers like Sia, Charli XCX, and Dev Hynes. One way or another, you'll find something to en-"Rapture" you.
